

Domain Names, Social Media, Internet Search Advertising

Our team of attorneys stay on the cutting edge of Internet-related issues. We protect our clients' digital assets, properties, advertisements, and addresses by registering, defending, and transferring domain names. We have experience and understanding related to Uniform Domain-Name Dispute Resolution Policy and have resolved disputes arising under such Policy. Our attorneys also have experience protecting our client's intellectual property on social media platforms and search engine advertisements and have filed take down notice and intellectual property infringement complaints with Instagram, Facebook, and Google.
