

Amy L. Reichhart Named to Rochester Business Journal's 2025 Power List for Environmental Leaders

December 19, 2025 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias LLP is pleased to announce that Amy L. Reichhart, a partner in its Rochester office, has been named to the Rochester Business Journal's 2025 Power List for Environmental Leaders. Reichhart is a member of the firm's environment & energy team and serves as leader of its brownfield & superfund cleanup and redevelopment practice team.

The Rochester Business Journal's Power List for Environmental Leaders recognizes individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to addressing climate issues. Honorees include professionals at the forefront of climate change efforts, those who have improved their organization's environmental practices, and individuals who support sustainability through both professional advocacy and personal practices.

About Amy L. Reichhart

As a partner in the firm's environment & energy practice and team leader of the firm's brownfield & superfund cleanup and redevelopment team, Amy focuses her practice on matters involving site investigation and remediation, brownfields redevelopment, environmental regulatory and enforcement matters, and all phases of litigation. She has extensive experience overseeing the cleanup of contaminated properties from investigation through remediation to site closure and is fully versed in the regulatory and technical aspects of a complex site.

Reichhart advises potentially responsible parties (PRPs), real estate developers, and landowners in developing strategies and managing the investigation and redevelopment of contaminated properties and addressing complex environmental compliance issues. She also has experience in challenging administrative determinations and defending enforcement actions before New York state agencies and assisting clients in performing environmental due diligence for real estate transactions and renewable energy projects.
