

Andrew M. Wilson Appointed to Erie County Bar Foundation Board of Directors

June 10, 2025 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias today announced that Andrew M. Wilson, the firm's chief advisory officer and co-leader of its immigration practice team, has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Erie County Bar Foundation.

Founded in 1957, the Foundation serves as the charitable arm of the Bar Association of Erie County and provides confidential financial assistance to attorneys facing personal or professional challenges, including illness, job loss, and substance use disorder. In addition to financial support, the Foundation sponsors mental health and wellness resources for local attorneys through the Member Assistance Program and collaborates with initiatives such as Lawyers Helping Lawyers and the Depression Support Group.

About Andrew M. Wilson

Andrew M. Wilson, a partner at Lippes Mathias LLP and co-leader of the firm's immigration practice team, focuses on building long-lasting relationships with clients as a trusted advisor rather than solely completing transactions and filings. He represents companies, major league sports teams and individuals in all areas of immigration law, including nonimmigrant and immigrant employment-based matters. This includes preparing case-specific strategies to address both short- and long-term objectives.

Wilson has extensive experience with challenging H-1B, NAFTA/USMCA and O-1 extraordinary ability cases. He is frequently consulted by other AILA immigration attorneys for assistance with complex NAFTA/USMCA matters. He also handles green card matters, including EB-1, EB-2 and PERM labor certification filings. In addition, Wilson represents individuals and families with family-based immigration petitions and waivers for admissibility issues.
