

Anoush Koroghlian-Scott Chairs Planning Committee, Moderates Panel at New York State Bar Association Health Law Section's Annual Fall Meeting

November 3, 2022 | PRESS RELEASES

ALBANY, N.Y. – Anoush Koroghlian-Scott, Lippes Mathias partner and member of the firm's health care practice team, served as chair of the planning committee for the New York State Bar Association Health Law Section's annual fall meeting, held on November 3, 2022, at NYU Langone in New York City. Anoush also served as a moderator for a civil liberties panel that was presented during the event.

The meeting, which centered on "The Impact of NYS Assembly Health Committee Chair Richard Gottfried on New York's Health Care Delivery System," featured a full-day program which covered how Mr. Gottfried changed New York laws during his career. Panelists discussed some of the laws he championed including those governing access, civil liberties, healthcare decision making and health care oversight; how those laws have changed the operation of the health care industry; the impact they have had on health care consumers; what more needs to be done to improve the health care delivery system in New York.

Anoush Koroghlian-Scott is a partner in the firm's health law practice team and brings nearly 30 years of experience having practiced health law in private practice and in-house at various hospitals in the Capital Region. As a member of the senior leadership team at a large community hospital and prior roles as risk management director and compliance officer in other regional facilities, Anoush has a unique understanding of health care operations and the daily challenges to delivering high-quality health care services in a cost-effective manner. Her clients include hospitals, physician practice groups, mental health providers, billing companies and individual practitioners. She serves as a strategic business partner on a wide range of transactional and operational matters and offers her clients practical, innovative solutions that align with strategic goals and initiatives.
