

Barbara M.R. Marvin Appointed to the Alliance for New Music-Theatre Board of Directors

July 7, 2022 | PRESS RELEASES

WASHINGTON, D.C.– Lippes Mathias is pleased to share that Barbara M.R. Marvin, a member of the firm’s Washington, D.C. office, has been appointed to serve a three-year term on the Alliance for New Music-Theatre Board of Directors.

Barbara focuses her practice on environment & energy and Indian law matters. She gained significant experience and expertise in these practice areas prior to joining Lippes Mathias while working for the federal government as a staff attorney for the National Indian Gaming Commission and as an attorney within the United States Department of Justice (DOJ), Environment and Natural Resources Division.

About the Alliance for New Music-Theatre

Committed to “changing the conversation through the arts,” artists from Alliance for New Music-Theatre believe that through collaboration and in partnership with key arts organizations, embassies, and other institutions, we can transform the capital into a world-class center for cross-fertilization in the arts. We can create opportunities for new voices and bring stories to the stage that matter -- with music that breaks open hearts. We share a vision that through bold and healing artmaking and practices we improve our community and the globe.
