

Benjamin T. White, Associate at Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP, Named to Kids Escaping Drugs Board of Directors

December 13, 2017 | PRESS RELEASES

BUFFALO, NY – Benjamin T. White, an associate at Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP, was recently appointed to the board of directors for Kids Escaping Drugs.

Kids Escaping Drugs was founded in 1987 in response to the need to provide a treatment facility for chemically dependent adolescents. The organization's mission is to raise, manage and distribute funds for the development and support of facilities, community education, and advocacy programs for adolescents and their families in Western New York suffering from alcohol and drug dependency/addiction.

At Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman, Mr. White is a member of the firm's Corporate & Securities Practice Group, focusing his practice on early-stage corporate development, mergers and acquisitions, and private equity transactions. He also devotes a significant amount of time handling stock and asset purchase agreements, franchising and licensing agreements, as well as other agreements involved in corporate and financial transactions. Mr. White's practice also focuses on various intellectual property matters, including trademark licensing, trademark and copyright litigation, federal and state trademark registration.
