

Brigid M. Maloney and Kennedy A. Farr Author Article in Central New York MDNews on Changing Physician Noncompete Rules in New York

October 20, 2026 | IN THE NEWS

Lippes Mathias LLP attorneys Brigid M. Maloney and Kennedy A. Farr authored an article in Central New York MDNews examining how the rules governing physician noncompete clauses may soon change in New York. The piece explains how New York courts currently judge whether these restrictions are reasonable. It also covers pending Senate Bill S4641, which would ban noncompetes for physicians regardless of income while keeping an exception for the sale of a practice.

Related Team

Kennedy A. Farr
Associate

Brigid M. Maloney
Partner | Team Co-
Leader - Health Care