

Bryan C. Shade Hosts Workshop at the 50th Annual Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada Convention

December 13, 2022 | PRESS RELEASES

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Bryan C. Shade, Lippes Mathias counsel and member of the firm’s Indian law practice team, today hosted a workshop titled “Increasing Tribal ISDEAA Funding Under Section 105 (I),” at the 50th Annual Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada (ITCN) convention.

The workshop provided attendees with an overview of section 105(I) of the Indian Self-Determination & Education Assistance Act and an understanding of how to access funding from Indian Affairs and the Indian Health Service.

Shade concentrates his practice on advising tribal clients with a wide array of novel legal issues ranging from gaming and economic development to self-governance and self-determination, and claims settlement and litigation. Prior to joining the firm, he advised on Indian affairs in the Office of the Solicitor at the United States Department of the Interior. Shade has also served Tribal Nations as in-house counsel and in other administrative capacities. Shade’s combination of experience on both sides of the table makes him uniquely qualified to represent his tribal clients. He is an enrolled member of the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians.
