BUFFALO, NY – Delphi21 Advisors, LLC, a national consulting firm focused on finding new approaches to meet the challenges of family businesses, is partnering with University at Buffalo's Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership (CEL) on a free webinar series focused on "Growing a Healthy Family Business from One Generation to the Next."

The first in the series, "Family Business Success Factors: New Planning Strategies for the 21st Century," on May 30 featured Scott Friedman, founding principal of Delphi21 Advisors, LLC and Tom Ulbrich, executive director of CEL.

In addition to his role with Delphi 21, Mr. Friedman serves as chairman and CEO at Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP. He focuses his legal practice principally in two areas: working with entrepreneurs and family businesses, partnerships and closely held businesses across the United States on a wide range of matters relating to organizational dynamics. Mr. Friedman is a general partner and manager of Impact Capital, a WNY venture capital fund, and Buffalo Capital Partners LLC, where he enjoys working closely with startup companies.
