

Dennis C. Vacco Presents During Panel at CC Forum's Sixth Edition

July 28, 2021 | PRESS RELEASES

BUFFALO, N.Y. –Earlier this month, Dennis C. Vacco, a Partner at Lippes Mathias, presented during a panel discussion at CC Forum's Sixth Edition held in Monaco. The panel, titled "Philanthropy and Social Impact: The Future of Sustainable Employment," focused on sustainable movement of migrant laborers and how the technology company, Joblio facilitates the movement of migrant laborers by connecting employees directly with employers while eliminating the middleman. Mr. Vacco, in his presentation discussed how technology can make the movement of migrant laborers advantageous to the laborer, employer and to governments on both ends of the migration.

A Former New York State Attorney General, Dennis serves as the Government & State Attorneys General Investigations Practice Team Leader at Lippes Mathias. Focusing much of his legal practice on governmental investigations and compliance work, Dennis works with clients who want to be sure they are in compliance with the complex and ever-changing rules of both the state and federal governments. Dennis focused his practice on State Attorney General investigations as well as investigations by the United States Department of Justice, Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, Securities and Exchange Commission, Commodity Futures Trading Commission and the Department of Homeland Security. Leading Lippes Mathias' U.S.-Israel Cross-Border Practice Team, Dennis also represents Israeli businesses that conduct business in the United States. Mr. Vacco also serves as a member of the Joblio Board of Advisors.

About CC Forum

The mission of CC Forum – an investment conference which is 100% dedicated to investment in sustainability – is convening the top business leaders, policymakers and public figures and defining the course of action we should collectively take to confront the existential challenges we are all facing today including climate change, fossil-fuel-based economies, overpopulation and poverty to name but a few. Therefore, in accordance with Sustainable Development Goals set by the United Nations, its topics center around investing in Environment, Renewable Energies, Emerging Technologies, Healthcare, Education, Social Inclusion and Philanthropy connecting the brightest startups to the savviest of investors
