

Dennis C. Vacco Quoted in Jacksonville Business Journal on St. Johns County Airport Authority Investigation

February 11, 2026 | IN THE NEWS

The Jacksonville Business Journal featured Dennis C. Vacco, partner and co-leader of Lippes Mathias' government & corporate investigations practice, discussing his findings from an investigation into governance failures at the St. Johns County Airport Authority. Vacco was quoted extensively about the investigation's conclusions, which attributed responsibility to the former board rather than the interim executive director. The article details how Vacco's review examined allegations of dysfunctional governance and procedural deficiencies during a critical period for the airport authority.
