

Gregory T. Myers Joins Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP's Albany Office

August 24, 2016 | PRESS RELEASES

ALBANY, NY – Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP is pleased to announce that Gregory T. Myers has joined the firm as an associate in its Albany office.

Mr. Myers focuses his practice on representing public sector labor unions in matters involving contract grievances, disciplinary charges, and improper employer practices.

Mr. Myers has previous union experience as a law clerk in the legal department of a prominent New York labor union.

In 2015, Mr. Myers earned his J.D., cum laude, from Albany Law School. He received a B.A., cum laude, in history and legal studies from Le Moyne College.

He also served as Managing Editor for Research and Writing on the Albany Government Law Review and volunteered at one of the law school's legal clinics, providing free legal services to underserved members of the Capital District community.

"Gregory's prior labor union experience, strong work ethic and genuine desire to represent the firm's public sector union clientele make him a terrific asset to our practice," said Keith R. Jacques, managing partner of the firm's Albany office.
