

Jacksonville Employment Attorney Stewart J. Subjinski Graduates from Leadership Jacksonville Flagship Program

July 1, 2026 | PRESS RELEASES

Stewart J. Subjinski, counsel in the Jacksonville office of Lippes Mathias LLP, has graduated from Leadership Jacksonville's Flagship program as a member of the class of 2026.

Leadership Jacksonville educates, connects, and inspires diverse leaders to build and strengthen their communities. More than 5,155 participants have graduated from one of the organization's four programs since its first class in 1977. Alumni have served in the leadership of virtually every nonprofit and civic organization and in many elected positions in northeast Florida.

About Stewart J. Subjinski

Stewart J. Subjinski is counsel with Lippes Mathias LLP in the firm's Jacksonville office, where he focuses his practice in general commercial litigation and outsourced general counsel services. Subjinski advises companies of all sizes and across many industries including technology, health care, real estate, professional services, and financial services.

Subjinski's practice covers general commercial litigation, representing clients as a plaintiff or defendant in breach of contract, trade secret, restrictive covenant, business tort, and real estate disputes, with experience in state, federal, and bankruptcy courts defending and obtaining injunctions, money judgments, and other collection remedies including foreclosures. He also provides outsourced general counsel services, offering ongoing, on-demand legal guidance for companies without in-house counsel to handle contract negotiation, regulatory compliance, employment advisement, and managing creditor and collection issues. His practice further covers employment law and risk management, including noncompete and other restrictive covenant enforcement, harassment investigations, severance strategies, EEOC proceedings, wage and hour claims, and theft or property loss issues.

Clients value Subjinski's blend of trial-ready tenacity with practical business sense. He focuses on achieving results that protect clients' bottom lines by incorporating litigation strategy into long-term operational objectives and helping clients anticipate and alleviate legal issues before they arise, delivering practical, business-driven legal solutions that minimize risk, control costs, and advance clients' strategic objectives.
