Jeremy J. Wolk Discusses Flexibility and Risk Allocation in Commercial Contracts Heading Into 2027 in Rochester Business Journal

November 18, 2026 | IN THE NEWS

In a recent Rochester Business Journal article, Jeremy Wolk, partner on Lippes Mathias' corporate practice team, said businesses are putting more emphasis on flexibility and risk allocation, especially in manufacturing and supply agreements. Wolk pointed to closer attention on tariffs, raw material costs, supply chain disruptions, and pricing adjustments. He also noted that change-in-law provisions are showing up more often.
