

Jeremy J. Wolk Speaks at ACG Tampa Bay Emerging Professionals Event on AI in M&A

September 10, 2026 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias LLP is pleased to share that Jeremy J. Wolk, partner and member of its corporate practice team, participated as a panelist at the ACG Tampa Bay Emerging Professionals event titled "How Artificial Intelligence is Transforming M&A."

The panel examined how artificial intelligence is reshaping the mergers and acquisitions landscape, covering deal sourcing, target evaluation, due diligence, transaction structuring, and post-close value creation. The discussion addressed where AI tools are currently being implemented, the risks and challenges the technology introduces, and considerations for deal professionals as AI continues to evolve.

The panel drew perspectives from four areas of the M&A ecosystem: AI tool implementation, legal, investment banking, and transaction advisory services.

About Jeremy J. Wolk

Jeremy J. Wolk is a partner in the firm's corporate practice team, bringing more than 25 years of experience guiding companies through complex corporate, strategic, and intellectual property transactions. With a background spanning both outside counsel and in-house general counsel roles, Wolk offers a business-focused perspective that blends sophisticated insight with practical execution.

Wolk advises on mergers and acquisitions, private equity, venture capital transactions, independent sponsor deals, joint ventures and strategic alliances, enterprise-level commercial arrangements, and a broad range of intellectual property-driven transactions. When acting as outside general counsel, he delivers business-aligned guidance on corporate governance, commercial operations, and supporting transactions, serving clients from emerging companies without in-house legal teams to large organizations with fully developed legal departments. His experience leading buy-side, sell-side, and strategic initiatives enables him to navigate complex transactions across industries.
