About John J. Koepfel

John J. Koepfel is a partner, serves as the team leader of the firm's private equity and independent sponsor practices, and is a member of the firm's executive committee. Koepfel is focused on direct deals and has structured, negotiated and closed more than 250 transactions over the past 25-plus years, typically involving mergers and acquisitions, fund and SPV formations, and private equity and independent sponsor transactions. He also works with clients to review and structure their Qualified Opportunity Zone and Qualified Small Business Stock investments.

Koeppel acts as counsel to funds, independent sponsors, holding companies, middle market companies, institutional investors, family offices, and high net worth investors focused on buy-out, growth, venture, real estate, intellectual property, energy, debt, fund-of-funds, co-investments, secondaries, and other strategies. He also acts as U.S. counsel to non-U.S. clients on their U.S. acquisition and private investment transactions, and serves as a director for several private equity-backed companies.

As an M&A and private equity attorney, Koeppel has advised on deals from $5 million to more than $250 million across industries including manufacturing, technology, consumer goods, food, distribution, business services, cleantech, and medical and health care. He frequently speaks at private equity and M&A events and podcasts, including iGlobal Independent Sponsor Summit, U.S. Emerging Manager Institute, Association for Corporate Growth, Expert Webcast, SBIA: Independent Sponsor Forum, and Family Office Enterprise. Prior to joining Lippes Mathias, Koeppel was a partner in the private equity and investment funds group of an AmLaw 100 firm.
