

Joseph W. Schafer Presents at Cannabis Association of New York Learn & Network Event

March 29, 2023 | PRESS RELEASES

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Joseph W. Schafer, a Lippes Mathias attorney and member of the firm's cannabis practice team, presented at a Cannabis Association of New York learn & network event focused on the state of the cannabis industry and what's to come later this year.

As a member of the firm's cannabis practice team, Schafer advises clients on the full spectrum of New York State's cannabis program (medical, cannabinoid hemp, and adult-use) and has prepared adult-use applications for conditional cultivation, processing, and retail dispensary applicants. He also negotiates and drafts agreements for both plant-touching and non-plant-touching businesses and regularly consults on the ever-changing regulatory landscape facing cannabis entrepreneurs in New York and across the country.
