BUFFALO, N.Y. – Lippes Mathias is pleased to announce that it now ranks among the 300-largest law firms in the United States by attorney count according to the National Law Journal's 2022 NLJ 500.

The move into the top 300 comes amid a multi-year period of sustained growth for the firm, which has almost tripled in size since 2015 and has moved 18 spaces up the NLJ 500 list since it was ranked #316 in 2021.

“Lippes’ NLJ 500 ranking can be traced directly back to the emphasis we place on maintaining a collegial culture that attorneys want to be a part of,” Kevin J. Cross, Lippes Mathias’ managing partner said. I look forward to advancing further up the ranks in future years as our firm continues to strategically add talent to better serve our clients.”

About the NLJ 500

The NLJ 500 is the National Law Journal's survey of the 500 largest law firms in the United States covering the previous calendar year. Data is collected from firms at the same time as the Am Law financial numbers. ALM sent surveys this year to more than 900 law firms to determine the 500 largest U.S.-centric firms by headcount. Firms smaller than No. 350 are divided into two tiers instead of earning individual ranks.
