

Lippes Mathias Client TierPoint LLC Recovers $1.2M in Bankruptcy Case Victory

Press Release

October 2, 2023 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias is pleased to congratulate its client TierPoint LLC on their victory in a case where a customer filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy, leading TierPoint to believe, at one point, that they would not be able to recover any money. Instead, through close collaboration between Lippes Mathias partner Leigh A. Hoffman and TierPoint's escalated client services team, the group has so far been able to recover $1.2 million.

Hoffman's practice regularly involves commercial litigation and dispute resolution. She represents national lenders in matters involving complex consumer and commercial bankruptcies. She has also represented numerous bankruptcy trustees, creditor's committees, and commercial clients in large liquidation cases dealing with preferences, fraudulent conveyances, and insider transfer recoveries. She serves as national counsel for an international auto-finance lender, coordinating all aspects of bankruptcy fraudulent conveyance litigation defense. She also assists in-house counsel in drafting RFPs, SLAs, and SOW for clients utilizing outside bankruptcy vendors. Hoffman provides counseling on consumer finance regulatory compliance to national lenders. She regularly addresses comprehensive federal and state regulatory compliance issues related to consumer leasing, consumer finance, automotive financing, collections, legal risk management, credit reporting, and governmental examinations. Her practice focuses on drafting personal property financing and leasing agreements and related program documents. She assists clients in developing consumer lending policies and consumer lending guidelines, and conducts in-house training tailored to those policies and best practices.
