

Lippes Mathias Partner Brendan H. Little to Speak on FCRA Lawsuit Trends During AccountsRecovery.net Webinar

February 9, 2026 | PRESS RELEASES

Brendan H. Little, a partner and leader of the consumer financial services litigation practice team at Lippes Mathias LLP, is scheduled to participate as a panelist in an AccountsRecovery.net webinar, “Breaking Down FCRA Lawsuit Trends,” on Wednesday, Feb. 11 at 1 p.m. ET.

Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) litigation remains among the most active areas of consumer law, with thousands of new cases filed annually. During the webinar, a panel of legal professionals will analyze the latest trends in FCRA lawsuits, including which claims are gaining traction and how recent court decisions are influencing collection and credit reporting practices. The discussion will also provide practical steps that companies across the credit and collection ecosystem can take to mitigate risk.

The presentation aims to assist compliance teams and legal departments in navigating the impact of disputes over credit reporting accuracy, evolving interpretations of permissible purpose, and data furnisher responsibilities.

About Brendan H. Little

Brendan H. Little is a partner and leader of the firm's consumer financial services litigation practice team. He focuses his practice primarily on commercial and business litigation matters, including contractual disputes, shareholder derivative actions, claims asserted pursuant to the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) Act, and real property litigation. Additionally, Little devotes a significant amount of his time traveling the country defending creditors against individual and class claims involving the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA). Prior to joining Lippes Mathias in 2009, Little was an associate attorney with Paul William Beltz PC, where he represented clients in personal injury matters. In his current practice, he continues to represent the interests of individuals who have suffered serious injuries as a result of the actions or negligence of others.
