December 4, 2025 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias is pleased to share that Matthew L. Hosford, a partner in its Albany office and a member of the firm's health law practice team, participated as a speaker at the New York State Veterinary Medical Society's Annual Conference, held on December 4, 2025.

Hosford's presentation was titled "What to do when OPD Knocks on Your Door."

About Matthew L. Hosford

Matthew L. Hosford has more than 20 years of experience representing clients in corporate, contractual, and transactional matters. He provides legal services to hospitals, ambulance providers, physicians and other licensed professionals, nursing homes, home care agencies, trade associations, corporate entities, and other health and non-health care clients with business and transactional needs. Contracts on which he has advised run the gamut from asset and stock purchase agreements to commercial leases and consulting agreements. He has particular experience in advising New York and out-of-state clients on corporate practice issues and related management services agreements for the various licensed professions.

Hosford's corporate experience involves the formation of corporate entities and the preparation of corporate organizational documents such as bylaws, shareholder agreements, operating agreements, and joint venture agreements. He has substantial experience working with not-for-profit corporations, including formation, reorganization, dissolution, asset transfer, tax-exempt applications, compliance with state and federal regulatory requirements, and governance issues. In addition, Hosford has developed a unique knowledge set to address the array of legal issues faced by medical spas. He regularly counsels medical spa clients on corporate structure, licensure, and regulatory matters.
