April 30, 2018 | PRESS RELEASES

BUFFALO, NY – Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP, in partnership with Freed Maxick CPAs and Buffalo Blockchain, is presenting Crypto Capital Markets 101 on May 23. The multidisciplinary panel, which includes Lippes Mathias attorneys Sarah H. Brennan and Stacey L. Moar, will give their insights and perspectives on the crypto market(s) for investors and issuers.

The event runs from 4:15 – 6:30 p.m. at Pearl at the Webb, 92 Pearl Street, Buffalo and is free to attend. Registration is required here. This is the first in a series of talks aimed at bringing together different knowledge silos in the space for an interactive discussion about how innovations and technology interact with regulations.

Ms. Brennan, a senior associate attorney, leads the Blockchain Technology, Cryptocurrency and Digital Assets practice team at Lippes Mathias.

Ms. Moar is a senior associate in Lippes Mathias' Litigation practice group and has extensive experience assisting clients with internal investigations, regulatory compliance and voluntary self-compliance matters.
