

LMWF Managing Partner Scott Friedman featured in Business First

May 26, 2015 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP Managing Partner Scott E. Friedman was recently featured in a Buffalo Business First article for his knowledge of family business psychology.

In the article, Mr. Friedman discusses the strategies behind operating a successful business.

"Happy people and successful organizations have certain things in common, whether it's a family business, any other business or a law firm. It's about culture and having people who share common goals, visions and values and are in a business together collegially," Mr. Friedman is quoted as saying.

The article also references Next Gen Advisors LLC, a consulting firm founded by Mr. Friedman that helps family-owned businesses develop strong relationships and best practices.
