

Matthew L. Hosford Presents “The Nuts and Bolts of Contracts for Small Business” to the Capital Region Chamber

October 26, 2021 | PRESS RELEASES

ALBANY, N.Y. – Matthew L. Hosford, a Partner at Lippes Mathias LLP, presented “The Nuts and Bolts of Contracts for Small Business” to the Capital Region Chamber as part of its Business U program. This session included the following:

- A basic overview of what makes a valid contract
- Common mistakes or things to watch out for in all contracts
- Top items to focus on in specific contracts which are common in all small businesses (i.e. commercial lease, employment agreement, vendor agreement, asset purchase agreement)
- Common contract clauses that may create unexpected liabilities or difficulties
- How to generally navigate contract disputes.

With more than 20 years of experience representing clients in corporate, contractual and transactional matters, Matthew L. Hosford provides legal services to hospitals, ambulance providers, physicians and other licensed professionals, nursing homes, home care agencies, trade associations, corporate entities, and other health and non-health care clients with business and transactional needs. Matthew has particular experience in advising New York and out-of-state clients on corporate practice issues and related management services agreements for the various licensed professions.
