Lippes Mathias partner, Andrew M. Wilson quoted in SHRM article, "President Biden Restarts Green Card Processing from Abroad." The article covers President Joe Biden ending the last administration's ban on green card processing from abroad. "Officially ending the visa ban is the easy part," he said. "The tough task now is to clear that enormous backlog of cases at the consulates. The ban is still causing problems until consulates can timely schedule interviews and process these visas. That will not happen overnight. Compounding the backlog dilemma is the fact that we are still dealing with limited consular operations because of COVID-19."
