

Recent Updates on Temporary Covid I-9 Procedures

April 13, 2022 | IMMIGRATION

There are two important updates regarding temporary Covid I-9 procedures:

1. Expired List B Identity Documents No Longer Acceptable

As of May 1, 2022, employers can no longer accept expired List B identity documents for the I-9 process. This was allowed as of May 2020 due to issues with applicable government agencies being able to issue documents.

Additional Date: July 31, 2022 Employers are required to update the I-9s of any employee who provided an expired List B document between May 1, 2020 and April 30, 2022. This needs to be completed by July 31, 2022.

2. Virtual Review of I-9 Documents

We will have to see what happens with the rules regarding virtual review of I-9 docs. That remains in effect until at least April 30th, and we will see if it is extended.

See: <https://www.uscis.gov/i-9-central/covid-19-form-i-9-related-news/dhs-extends-form-i-9-requirement-flexibility-effective-january-1-2022>

There is supposed to be a new rule coming out in June 2020 that will make remote verification options more permanent.

See: <https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2021/10/26/2021-23260/remote-document-examination-for-form-i-9-employment-eligibility-verification-request-for-public>

The understanding right now is that DHS will provide some advance notice when and how previously virtual I-9 processes will need to be confirmed in-person. Employers can start to gather a list of the those names whose I-9s may need to be verified in-person.

There should be a new rule providing for virtual verification of I-9s going forward, but we do not know if that will address the virtual I-9s during Covid. Those may still need to be verified in-person if a new rule is finalized.

We should see an update shortly on:

- 1. Virtual I-9 verification after April 30, 2022
- 2. What to do re: virtual I-9s verified during Covid
- 3. New rule allowing for virtual I-9 verification going forward
