

Scott E. Thompson Appointed to Chill Brands Group Board of Directors

January 27, 2022 | PRESS RELEASES

NEW YORK, NEW YORK – Lippes Mathias is pleased to announce that Scott E. Thompson, partner and team co-leader of the firm’s intellectual property practice team, has been appointed to the Chill Brands Group Board of Directors as an independent non-executive director.

Scott, a leading intellectual property attorney, has extensive experience representing clients, including Fortune 100 companies, in trademark, copyright, patent, unfair competition, advertising, internet, and social media matters for U.S. and international litigation, brand creation, management and protection, transactional matters, and counseling. Immediately prior to joining Lippes Mathias, Scott was general counsel- intellectual property/marketing properties with Mars Incorporated (one of the largest privately held companies in the world) where he built and led a team of over 50 in-house intellectual property & marketing properties professionals. Scott also served as counsel for some of the world's largest brands including Philip Morris Companies, Colgate-Palmolive, and GlaxoSmithKline. At GlaxoSmithKline, Scott served as vice president, global trademarks, and as global head of a 50-person tri-location trademark department responsible for trademark, copyright, unfair competition, and internet and intranet matters for the world's second-largest pharmaceutical and consumer healthcare company.
