April 25, 2017 | PRESS RELEASES

BUFFALO, NY – Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP Senior Associate Stacey L. Moar participated in The Knowledge Group’s webinar, “Restrictive Covenants and Non-Compete Agreements” on April 24.

The webinar focused on the legal and practical limits on companies putting restraints on certain former employees to prevent disclosure and use of proprietary information in addition to discussing current legal developments concerning non-compete agreements and their enforceability.

At Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP, Ms. Moar lends her experience to the litigation practice group, assisting clients with internal investigations, regulatory compliance and voluntary self-compliance matters. She has also handled numerous commercial matters involving restrictive covenants and contractual disputes as well as employment disputes.
