

Trusts & Estates Seminar: Protecting What You've Built

April 17, 2026 | EVENTS

TRUSTS & ESTATES SEMINAR:
PROTECTING WHAT YOU'VE BUILT

Strategic Estate Planning Solutions for Florida Residents

WEDNESDAY,
MAY 6

2:00 - 4:00 PM

@ Jacksonville Golf
& Country Club

REGISTER HERE

Thoughtful estate planning is essential to protecting what you've built. But without the right structure in place, even well-intentioned plans may lead to unnecessary taxes, delays, or family disputes.

Whether you are a long-time Florida resident, a recent transplant, or split your time between multiple states, your estate plan should reflect your current lifestyle, assets, and long-term goals.

Join our Trusts & Estates attorneys for a complimentary seminar to learn how to help protect your assets, reduce common pitfalls, and improve the likelihood your estate plan functions as intended.

Date: Wednesday, May 6, 2026

Time: Check-in: 1:30 - 2:00 PM | Seminar: 2:00 - 4:00 PM | Networking & Cocktails: 4:00 - 5:00 PM

Location: Jacksonville Golf & Country Club, 3985 Hunt Club Road North, Jacksonville, FL 32224

Session Topics:

Ensuring Your Estate Plan Meets Your Objectives and Reduces the Risk of Disputes

Presented by: Alessandro A. Apolito

Learn how to align your estate plan with your intentions while reducing the risk of conflict and supporting a smoother administration.

Estate Planning for Snowbirds and New Florida Residents

Presented by: Christina H. Arthurs

Understand how to establish Florida residency, update key documents, and coordinate multi-state assets while helping to avoid unnecessary probate issues.

Leveraging Florida-Specific Tools: Lady Bird Deeds and Community Property Trusts

Presented by: Mark D. Canfield

Explore planning tools that may simplify asset transfers, preserve potential tax advantages, and provide greater control.

Related Team

Alessandro A.

Apolito

Partner | Office

Leader, Jacksonville

Christina H. Arthurs

Partner

Mark D. Canfield

Senior Associate