

Wayne Selogy Admitted to Practice Law in Florida, Joins Lippes Mathias Real Estate Practice

October 11, 2024 | PRESS RELEASES

Lippes Mathias today announced that Wayne Selogy, a 2024 graduate of the University of Miami School of Law, has been admitted to practice law in Florida. Selogy, who began with the firm as a summer associate in 2023 and continued as a law clerk, now joins the firm's real estate practice team in its Jacksonville office.

Selogy will focus on real estate matters, collaborating with investors, financial institutions, developers, and other stakeholders in complex transactions. His work will include multifamily housing, affordable housing, commercial and industrial properties, and senior housing projects. Selogy will assist clients in structuring debt, integrating public finance elements, and managing economic development initiatives. Additionally, he will support clients in real estate investment, including capital raising, private placements, stock and asset acquisitions, joint ventures, and public financing.

Selogy's experience includes his time as a judicial intern for U.S. District Court Judge Robin L. Rosenberg and his roles as a summer associate and law clerk with Lippes Mathias, which provide him with a strong foundation for the responsibilities ahead.
