Bio

Mr. Deily's practice is focused on complex commercial litigation, commercial lending, problem loan workouts and debt restructure. He regularly represents the firm's national lender clients in the various state, United States District Courts and Bankruptcy Courts in the Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions as well as other areas of the country.

With over 40 years' experience representing lenders and manufacturers in the automotive, trucking and equipment industry, he regularly advises national clients in litigation and workout matters, including lender liability cases, sales and acquisitions and bankruptcies. Additionally, he is directly involved in advising these clients on national loan and litigation policy and loss prevention measures. He also represents private clients in a variety of business matters, including acquisitions of private and publicly traded companies, cross-border transactions, complex commercial transactions, and general business counseling and planning. He also serves as an evaluative mediator in commercial matters.

Prior to joining Lippes Mathias, Mr. Deily was a founding member of Deily & Glastetter, LLP – an Albany-based law firm. As a founding partner, he was responsible for long range, strategic planning and worked closely with the management team on matters relating to information technology. He also led the commercial law and litigation departments.

Mr. Deily is an active member of several bar and professional organizations and a regular speaker at conferences on topics relating to creditor representation, inventory financing, bankruptcy and reorganizations. He has been repeatedly recognized by Upstate New York Super Lawyers® (2009-2017), received an AV Preeminent® rating from Martindale Hubbell®, and was selected as a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America™, a trial lawyer honorary society
