Mr. Hickey focuses his practice on representing public sector labor unions in matters involving members' terms and conditions of employment, including disciplinary arbitrations, contract grievance arbitrations, improper employer practices before the New York State Public Employment Relations Board, administrative hearings before the New York State Justice Center and the New York State Division of Human Rights, as well as related litigation matters in New York State and federal courts.

Prior to joining Lippes Mathias, Mr. Hickey spent over a decade of his career in state government working in the Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA) and the Office of the New York State Attorney General, defending myriad litigation matters, including class actions, against New York State. Before that, Mr. Hickey spent a dozen years working in the private sector handling transactional matters as well as commercial, employment, and general civil litigation.
