

Timothy E. Nauman | Senior Counsel

Cleveland
216.363.9000 x1136 | tnauman@lippes.com

Mr. Nauman focuses his legal practice in the field of mechanical arts, advising clients with matters involving patent preparation and prosecution, opinions, licensing, and counseling with additional emphasis on trademark and copyright law. Mr. Nauman is a well-established IP attorney with an accomplished track record, serving businesses of all sizes across a wide array of industries. Tim diverse client base includes companies that provide products and services such as in-home appliances and lighting, fluid handling, hydraulics, environmental devices, medical devices, jet fuel pumps, brake systems, can forming, plastic containers, vehicle window and door sealing, vehicle noise and vibration dampening, vision testing equipment, packaging, inkjet and toner cartridges equipment for the telecommunications industry, and sports equipment.

Mr. Nauman's vast knowledge in technical engineering combined with his experience in serving a diversified portfolio of companies has significantly contributed to his client's success in solving various and complex legal challenges, assisting them to achieve their business objectives and goals.

EDUCATION

- University of Dayton, J.D., 1983
- University of Notre Dame, B.S., Civil Engineering, 1980
- Cleveland-Marshall College of Law
  - Adjunct Professor of Law
- Former Examiner, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

- Ohio
- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

CAPABILITIES

Intellectual Property

- Domain Names, Social Media, Internet Search Advertising
- Licensing & Tech Transfer
- Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Patents
- Trade Dress
- Trademarks
- Trade Secrets
- United States Patent and Trademark Office Proceedings